

The United Way has a COVID-19 Economic Relief Fund set up for families in which they will help with bills, rent, and food. Families in our area should call 211 and specifically ask about the fund.

Many of the food pantries have closed; Care and Share have a list of those that are open according to zip codes.