

Coronado Remote Learning Expectations

1. General Student Expectations:
 - a. Students are expected to attend every class and participate in the remote learning opportunities. See the new Coronado bell schedule for class days and times.
 - b. Students are expected to check their Schoology and D11 email regularly throughout the school day for updates and information from the school and teachers.
 - c. Students are expected to complete all assignments to the best of their abilities.
 - d. If a student misses a class, he or she will be expected to log-on to Schoology to acquire missed instruction and assignments.
2. Instruction: Coronado will continue to consistently provide students with high quality instruction, opportunities to develop skills and various forms of assessments.
 - a. Teachers will provide at least one, but no more than three graded assignments per week.
 - b. Teachers will provide synchronous (live instruction with teacher in a virtual setting) learning opportunities during regularly scheduled class times. See Coronado's new bell schedule for these times.
 - c. Teachers will provide asynchronous (completion of projects, assignments, etc. outside of synchronous learning time) learning opportunities.
 - d. Attendance will be taken in every class period, to include study hall and the new 8th period. Students not present during class time will be marked unexcused absent. Parents/guardians may excuse their students by calling the attendance office at 328-3613.
3. Communication & Engagement: Coronado will continue to engage students in the learning process and will communicate in a variety of ways to reach all students and families.
 - a. Coronado will communicate with students via their d11 email (e.g. studentfirstname.studentlastname@d11.org); Coronado will NOT be communicating with students through non-district email addresses.
 - b. Coronado will communicate with parents/guardians through the email provided by parents/guardians in the Q system. Please ensure all emails are current in Q.
 - c. Coronado will respond to students' and parents' emails in a timely manner.
 - d. Teachers will post all class materials on the Schoology platform.
 - e. Teachers will host live instruction via WebEx.
 - f. Coronado will provide in-person learning opportunities on Wednesdays from 12:45-3:15pm for targeted student populations. These opportunities will be communicated in greater detail by individual teachers.
 - g. Coronado will continue to reach out regularly to students not engaging in remote learning.

4. Feedback: Coronado will continue to provide students with specific and timely feedback.
 - a. Teachers will continue to update the gradebook on a weekly basis.
 - b. Teachers will continue to provide formal and informal feedback in both the synchronous and asynchronous setting.
 - c. Teachers will ensure the gradebook is clear and understandable for both students and parents.
