

Family & Consumer Sciences Course Offerings

Coronado Campus

Culinary Arts

Development of lifelong skills in food preparation, cooking techniques, food safety, and effective teamwork in the kitchen.

Catering

Students use a combination of teamwork, food safety, cooking techniques and entrepreneurship with projects to explore the career field of catering. Students earn college credit at PPSC.

Interpersonal Relationships

Students will gain the knowledge & skills required to develop and maintain healthy interpersonal relationships across the lifespan.

Child Development

The study the growth & development of the child, ages 0-adolescence. (Infant simulator experience included)

Teacher Cadet

An honors level course that offers an introduction to the teaching profession. Includes a 50 hour internship. Students can earn college credits at UCCS and PPSC.

RJ Wasson Campus

bus transportation available

Early Childhood Education

Introduction to careers working with children ages 0-8 years-old. Students earn 9 Pikes Peak State college credits + internship.

Paraprofessional Educator

Education & training for a career as an educational assistant. Students earn eight college credits at the University of Colorado Denver + internship.

ProStart

Career development in culinary arts and restaurant management through culinary labs and working at the campus Coffee Shop. Students earn college credits at MSU-Denver and PPSC.

Resort & Event Management

Career development in hotel, resort, and event management through hotel internship and classroom learning. Students earn college credits at MSU-Denver.

Culinary Essentials

Introduction to food safety and preparation through culinary labs.

Career Pathways

Hospitality and Food Production Pathway

Human Services/Education and Training Pathway

For more information:

Mrs. Gay

Karen.Gay@d11.org

Room #405

Mrs. Friesema

Andrea.Friesema@d11.org

Room #406

or ask your counselor!

Follow Us at:

@educationd11

@spanishpeaksfccla

@fcs.coronado

FCCLA meets every other Tuesday during both lunches in classroom #406.
Come & join us!