Why I chose this?

I chose to do my Hate You Give (Thematic Collage) because I enjoyed reading the book as well as watching the movie. There were times in the book and movie that my peers and I could relate to. This book/movie shows how things happen in the real world and how the people in the book and movie really wanted to stop these problems. With my thematic collage poster, I chose the theme family. I chose this theme because it was a big part in the book and the movie, and it just felt right. I personally connected to this book/movie and the theme because my family is not perfect and I'm sure all the other families are not perfect. At the end of the day though a family is a family no matter what and this book/movie really demonstrated this.

What I did?

- For my Global Context, my project fits into the categories of Identities & Relationships. I chose these Global Contexts because my poster was family-themed. I feel like the book had a big focus on family and these two contexts were the best one that fit into family. My two approaches of learning were creativity skills & research skills. When I first started this project, I had to be creative produce the ideas I did.

Reflection?

I learned the meaning behind T.H.U.G.L.I.F.E in Tupac's word. The. Hate. U. Give. Little. Infants. Fs. Everybody. Little Infant don't really do that. Depending on how they grew up, if they grew up in a bad area or around bad influences then they will grow up to be like that and they'll think that's how it's supposed to be. One thing that I would change is the pictures I would make same type of pictures. I didn't expect my project to turn out how it did, but it turned out better than I thought.
