

Pre-Arranged Absence Form

Form must be completed and turned into the main office at least one week prior to the student's absence

This form does not excuse the absence. The back of this form provides state statute and examples of excused vs. unexcused absences. The purpose of the Pre-Arranged Absence Form is to give advanced notification to teachers so they can work with the student to provide work that will be missed during an absence known about in advance. Nothing replaces actual instruction in the classroom. Also, there are times when teachers do not have work ready for the following week because they make instructional decisions based on real-time student data. Per teacher discretion, missed assignments from a pre-arranged absence may be excused or an alternative assignment similar to the one done in class may be given. Students have one day per missed day to turn in missed work from a pre-arranged absence. It is strongly encouraged that students turn in work from the pre-arranged absence the day they return in order to stay caught up with the class.
