Old Business

West Side Community Block Party went well – set date for next one for September 20, 2020

- Will see what PTA can do to further support it next year

New Business

PTA Grants – voted for approval:

- Girls on the Run -- $100 approved
- Kitchen staff asking for PTA acct -- $250 approved
- Ms Clapham – suicide prevention program -- $250 approved
- PBIS – for both elementary & middle schools -- $250 x 2
- ST Math pizza parties for kindergarten -- $250

Carnival To Do

- Friday October 18—5-7 pm
- Karen says that's fine – and it's on the master calendar
- Dunk tank guy – will be at school at 2:00 to drop it off. We have till day before to cancel if we need to.
- Jacilyn will order prizes
- Jacilyn will send out a flyer and post some around elementary school
- Amy Anderson's daughter will make a couple larger posters
- See if the sports teams can vacate by 4:15, say... or just not use the facilities that day – Anna will talk with them
- Shauna will create the food-to-buy list.
- Jen will buy the food.
- Jen will ask Jessica Modeer if the girls will come do face painting
- Shalah will email Tina and Beth and Sarah to ask about getting Middle School Volunteers
- Shauna will create the signup Genius – and we'll send it out via the Loop
 - Need cakewalk donations (suggest cupcakes/cookies rather than huge cakes)

- Need volunteers to man games – 14 games + dunk tank (student volunteers get hot dogs)
 - Sell tix/distribute food
- Let's do the food inside the cafeteria and do hot dogs in crock pots.
- Popcorn – Jacilyn will arrange for this
- Kona Ice will come – Jacilyn will check if they'll do a donation to PTA or else charge very little for the sno cones
- Will use -- cafeteria/gym, backyard
- We'll have 14 games plus the dunk tank
- $5 admission
- $3 for food
- $1 for dunk tank
- Could have somebody out back to do the money for the dunk tank. Maybe make the entrance at the gate.

Next meeting is November 5
